

Design a Stamp

A nationwide competition has been launched for young people to choose and create a design for next year's 70 cent stamp. Consider someone who you feel is deserving of recognition and why you feel their image should be on a postal stamp. Draw your design and write a small piece on why you have chosen this icon for the stamp.

